EASTER

GOLF & COACHING & THE MASTERS WEEKEND

Based at the Belton Woods Golf Resort, Grantham, Lincolnshire
Friday 10th - Monday 13th April 2020

For the 2020 UK Golf & Coaching season we are hosting events at both the Belton Woods Hotel & Golf Club in Lincolnshire, as well as the Staverton Park Estate in Northamptonshire. And it is Belton Woods which hosts the traditional Easter Golf & Coaching Weekend. Set in 475 acres of gorgeous Lincolnshire countryside, with two PGA Championship-approved golf courses, excellent teaching facilities, including a covered driving range, excellent leisure facilities, a spa and super 4-star hotel accommodation, Belton Woods is a welcome and worthy addition to our programme.

The purpose of the Golf & Coaching Weekends is to improve your golf in the company of Barney Puttick and David Short, two of the UK's leading teaching Pro's. Technique, mental approach, game management, range and on-course tuition are all covered, and the events provide the ideal opportunity to fine-tune your game. The events are also very enjoyable social occasions for both single golfers and couples alike. And with The Masters at Augusta taking place over the Easter weekend, what better way to enjoy it than in the company of like-minded golfers.

If you wish to book a place on the tour, please contact us by email, via the website or by phone, and we will book you in accordingly.

Teaching philosophy...

"I really enjoy our Golf & Coaching events as it really allows clients to immerse themselves in their favourite subject! I am always looking to enhance what a player comes with, rather than impose a rigid method. Using swing drills and constructive practice ideas, I feel every player can improve their understanding and then in turn, their game. Seeing this put into practice on the course is the key element to our events, as that is our goal, to improve your game when you play."

Barney Puttick

"A golf swing is like a fingerprint, everyone different, therefore treat each one individually. However, I believe that the golfer needs to understand and instil a handful of sound basics and then let their game form around that, to the best of their ability and aspirations."

David Short

THE EASTER GOLF & COACHING and THE MASTERS WEEKEND

Both Barney and David will be your PGA Pro hosts for the weekend. For the coaching element of the weekend you will be taught within two groups as illustrated below. Barney will conduct long game analysis on the range. David on the other hand, will cover all aspects of the short game at the short game area, as well as course management issues. You will have sessions with both David and Barney throughout the weekend. For the rounds of golf on the Saturday and Sunday afternoons, both Barney and David will be moving between each playing group, providing on-course guidance. Over dinner each evening and thereafter in the bar, Barney and David will be on hand to discuss any matters about your game and to advise accordingly.
